

Activities in and Around Greenville South Carolina

Start at: www.visitgreenvillesc.com

<https://www.visitgreenvillesc.com/travel-info/visitors-guide/>

The Number 1 Thing to do in Greenville

Liberty Bridge over the river in the heart of downtown: Among shopping, restaurants, clubs, theaters...

Walking

Enjoy the streets and the river park of downtown or for a more natural experience get on the Swamp Rabbit Trail a 21 mile rails to trails project that begins downtown.

Antique Shops

Antiques On Augusta

1700 Augusta St., Greenville, SC 29605

(864) 370-1870

Antiques On Augusta

Antiques store featuring fine furniture, sterling silver, Oriental carpets, lamps, framed art, accessories and vintage finds.

Greystone Antiques

1500 Augusta St, Greenville, SC 29605

(864) 233-3424

Greystone Antiques

Quality antique furniture restoration and sales.

La Maison D'Antiques

1000 Poinsett Hwy, Greenville, SC 29609

(864) 241-0557

Southern Estates Antiques

415 Mauldin Rd, Greenville, SC 29605

(864) 299-8981

Southern Estates Antiques

Mixes fine period antiques, art, mid-century modern furnishings, antique & semi-antique rugs, silver, glass, china, and collectibles.

Festivals & Markets

TD Saturday Market – On Main Street Downtown every Saturday May – October, Fresh produce to ready-made meals and try the local flavors.

EVERY FRIDAY, MARCH 22 - SEPTEMBER 27, 2019

Free Admission

Greenville Heritage FCU Main Street Fridays presented by Pepsi.

This weekly music series on Main Street at NOMA Square opens at 5:30 p.m. and closes at 9:30 p.m., with bands playing 2 sets at 5:50 p.m. and 7:40 p.m. In addition, the Kids' Area features a variety of inflatables to add to the family fun. NOMA Square chairs go fast, so bring a tailgating chair. NOMA Square, 220 North Main Street, Greenville, SC

Museums

Is the Greenville-based home for the world-famous Carolina Clavier Collection—more than 40 English, European, and American pianos and harpsichords dating from 1570 to 1845.

The museum will also exhibit other culturally important instruments. Our mission is to entertain, and inform audiences of all ages about the rich musical history and traditions of the Carolinas, through historically and culturally significant instruments.

516 Buncombe Street | Greenville, SC 29601 | 864-520-8807 www.carolinamusicmuseum.org

Greenville County Museum of Art

Among the country's premiere regional American art museums, the Greenville County Museum of Art draws visitors from around the world each year to see work by 2 of the nation's greatest artists, Andrew Wyeth and Jasper Johns as well as its acclaimed Southern Collection, which ranges from Federal portraits to contemporary abstractions. The GCMA is home to the largest and most complete collection of Wyeth watercolors owned by any public museum in the world. Changing exhibitions and challenging and fun educational offerings make every visit to the Museum a unique experience. The GCMA's weekly Sundays at 2 program presents a wide range of fun and enriching activities, including Music in the Galleries, Family Art Adventures, and Artists in Action. Featuring free admission, the GCMA invites you to come and see what you think!

Shoeless Joe Jackson Museum & Baseball Library

Visit the home in which baseball legend, "Shoeless Joe," lived and died. Located at 356 Field Street, across from Fluor Field in the West End Hours of operation: Saturdays, 10 a.m. - 2 p.m. Free admission. Free parking adjacent to the museum.

Upcountry History Museum

The Upcountry History Museum works to promote, present and preserve the history of Upcountry South Carolina through education, research and service. In addition to exhibitions focusing on the region, the museum has a rich educational program and a growing oral history collection. Historical programs are presented throughout the year.

Restaurants - Way too numerous to list here,

But you could take a culinary tour... the following are listed on:

www.Greenvillehistorytours.com or you can call (864) 567-3940

At the Chef's Table Culinary Tour

Greenville BBQ Trail Tour

Greenville Breakfast Tour

And... here are some local favorites

Larkin's On the River

Known locally for its excellent service and romantic ambience, Larkin's On The River has a menu that is upscale traditional American; specialties including filet mignon, crab soup and shrimp and grits. Take advantage of the outdoor seating area when there is a performance on at the TD Bank amphitheater adjacent to the restaurant for a ringside seat with your meal. Larkin's also hosts the weekly outdoor beach music concert series Rhythm on the River during the summer months.

Larkin's On The River, 318 South Main Street, Greenville, SC, USA, +1 864-467-9777.

The Lazy Goat

The Lazy Goat offers fresh Mediterranean cuisine in the west end of the city, taking influences from Spain, Morocco, Italy, France and the Middle East. Unsurprisingly, the menu is substantial, spanning pizza and pasta to Moroccan lamb and Atlantic swordfish. Split across two levels, the interior mixes classic and contemporary Mediterranean style and has lots of light thanks to large windows.

The Lazy Goat, 170 River Place, Greenville, SC, USA, +1 864-679-5299.

Smoke on the Water

A must for all barbecue fans, Smoke On the Water offers traditional, perfectly cooked barbecue food including beef brisket, pulled pork, baby back ribs and the award-winning pimento cheeseburger. As a local favorite, Smoke on Water gets busy and it is worth calling ahead to secure a table. The well-stocked bar is a lively place to be at happy hour, and the outdoor seating area has regular live music.

Smoke on the Water, 1 Augusta Street, Greenville, SC, USA, +1 864-232-9091.

The Trappe Door

The Trappe Door takes its inspiration from Belgium, with over 150 different Belgian beers and traditional Belgian-inspired food. As with most Belgian restaurants, The Trappe Door's specialty is moules frites, with six different mussel stocks to choose from, including mariniere and Provençale. Look out for periodic "all you can eat" moules frites nights too. The restaurant sits beneath Barley's Taproom, and this subterranean setting means a snug ambiance, with low ceilings, exposed brick walls and wooden features that give it a Belgian gastropub feel.

The Trappe Door, 23 West Washington Street, Greenville, SC, USA, +1 864-451-7490.

Biscuit Head – Breakfast Restaurant

823 S Church St, Greenville, SC 29601
Cross Streets: Between Judson Street and University Ridge

(864) 248-0371

biscuitheads.com

7:00 AM - 2:00 PM

Southern: Soby's

Celebrating its 20th anniversary this fall, Soby's New South Cuisine is considered the granddaddy of the Greenville dining scene. Housed in a former shoe store and credited, in part, for the revival of downtown, Soby's is a venerable combination of Southern ingredients and contemporary innovation. The shrimp and grits and the current upcountry version — with country ham, andouille sausage, charred tomato broth and scallions over Anson Mills grits. Other Southern notables include she-crab soup, fried green tomatoes with pimento cheese fondue, crab cakes and the white-chocolate banana cream pie.

207 S Main St, Greenville, SC 29601 Phone: 864-232-7007 <http://www.sobys.com/>

Passerelle Bistro

Passerelle Bistro is a restaurant located in Falls Park, one level down from 601 South Main Street Greenville, SC ("under" Spill the Beans). The best way to find it from Main Street is to come down the stairs into Falls Park and you'll see the big red awning.

Bistro favorites and rustic contemporary dishes, all featuring fresh ingredients as influenced by the season. Iconic French specialties such as Mussels Passerelle, Croque Monsieur, Ratatouille, Escargot and Frites & Remoulade are served alongside comfort dishes like the Bistro Burger, Chicken or Tuna Salad Baguette, Nicoise Salad and Shrimp En Cocotte.

\(864\) 509-0142

Bakery & Cafe
21 Roper
864-233-3996

Mountain Rd.
www.strossners.com

Breweries & Distilleries

Dark Corner Distillery

●●●●● 286 reviews

#5 of 68 things to do in Greenville

Distilleries

Learn More

Join us in downtown Greenville, SC for whiskey tasting! We offer guests the opportunity to sample six of our spirits while hearing the history of the products and their unique flavor profiles. Tastings cost $7 and include a Dark Corner Distillery shot glass. Our focus is on producing small batches of The World's Best Moonshine, aged whiskey, gin, absinthe and other distilled spirits while educating locals and tourists alike about our rich Appalachian heritage. Our distillation system was designed by the founder of the distillery to favor quality and taste. We firmly believe that the use of time-honored methods and equipment plays a vital role in producing The World's Best Moonshine and many other award-winning distilled spirits.

14 S Main St, Greenville, SC 29601

72 Beers on Tap!

[941 South Main St,
Greenville, SC 29601](#)

864-770-7777

Sunday – Thursday 11am - 10pm

Friday & Saturday 11am - 10pm

Sunday Brunch 11am - 3pm

Breweries are also too numerous to list in Greenville but you can Visit <http://www.thebreweryexperience.com/> to get information on the microbreweries in Greenville, Ashville, Hendersonville, and Brevard.

Shopping

Main Street in downtown is loaded with eclectic shops

Also see Haywood Mall, www.haywoodmall.com

Also see www.visitgreenvilleSC.com

Shows/Plays/Attractions

Rockabilly Heaven

When you blend traditional honky tonk Country music with old school Rock and Roll, you get a rockabilly show that will blow the roof off the house! This original production will feature the music of Elvis Presley, Jerry Lee Lewis, Patsy Cline, and Johnny Cash & June Carter Cash. Presented By: Centre Stage - Professional Theatre, Local Artists Dates: 7/26/2019, 7/27/2019, 7/28/2019, 8/1/2019, 8/2/2019, 8/3/2019, 8/8/2019, 8/9/2019

Location: Centre Stage - Professional Theatre, Local Artists

Address: 501 River St, Greenville, SC 29601

Phone: (864) 233-6733

Time: Thu - Sat 8 pm, Sun 3 pm

Price: $25-$36.50

Greenville Zoo

150 Cleveland Park Drive

Greenville, SC 29601

Phone: 864-467-4300

Sports and General Events

Falls Park on the Reedy

A tribute to the Reedy River, which nourished Greenville's beginnings in 1770, the park is now an oasis in the heart of downtown with scenic overlooks, nature trails, pond, landscaped gardens, waterfalls, and a pedestrian suspension bridge.

\(864\) 467-4355

601 S Main St

Greenville, SC 29601

The Visit Greenville Guides can be found in most hotel lobbies